

Chained dogs often become aggressive and territorial, and will attack children who enter their territory. Dogs shouldn't be allowed to run free; they should be socialized and kept inside the home or a fenced yard.

KILLED

Tony Evans, Jr., Age 3
Mississippi

Pablo Hernandez, Age 5
Texas

Abraham Tackett, Age 2
Alaska

Holden Jernigan, Age 2
South Carolina

Karson Dylan Gilroy, Age 2
North Carolina

Zachary King, Age 7
Minnesota

Sabin Jones Abbott, Age 6
New York

Korie-Lyn Edwards, Age 1
Montague Township,
Canada

Tiffany Pauley, Age 5
Atlanta, GA

Amber Jones, Age 10
Texas

Javlyin Anderson, Age 2
Mississippi

Quillan Cottrell, Age 3
Missouri

Cody Adair, Age 4
Oklahoma

Jonathan Martin, Age 2
Virginia

Asia Turner, Age 4
South Carolina

Robbie Shafer, Age 4
Virginia

Cody, Age 3
B.C., Canada

Myles Leakes, Age 4
Florida

INJURED

Alexander Lester, Age 12
Pennsylvania, August 2008

Elizabeth Stanek, Age 15
North Carolina

Alisia Johnson, Age 3
Mississippi

Kade Fries, Age 10
Texas

Jacob Brady, Age 16 mo.
Virginia

Malik Gipson, Age 9
Illinois

J'Naya Allen, Age 8
Georgia

Alex Miller, Age 7
Tennessee

Zachary Spafford, Age 8
Indiana

Kassime Reddick, Age 9
New Jersey

Trinity Robichaud, Age 5
South Carolina

DeNasha Hackner, Age 9
Indiana

Maysia Moore, Age 8
Washington

Daishauna Craig, Age 9
Tennessee

Tacarra McCray, Age 6
Florida

Isaiah Crockett, Age 10
North Carolina

Timothy Hughes, Age 8
Wisconsin

Tristan McNaylor, Age 12
Louisiana

Chained dogs are often severely neglected. Chained dogs are injured or killed when chains become embedded in their necks or when they jump a fence.

